

Georgia Chamber Endorses Scott Bohlke, M.D. for 4th State Senate District

Atlanta, Georgia – Wednesday, April 29, 2020 – The Georgia Chamber of Commerce announces its endorsement of Dr. Scott Bohlke, M.D. for State Senate District 4, which includes all or portions of Bulloch, Candler, Effingham, Emanuel, Evans, and Tattnall Counties. Each election cycle, the Chamber’s Political Affairs Council vets dozens of candidates for office. After working through the endorsement process, business leaders from across the state are confident that Dr. Bohlke’s experience as a family physician will lead to effective policy decisions that positively impact free enterprise and job creation throughout the state.

“After vetting the candidates running for Georgia’s 4th Senate District, our members believe there is a clear choice in who will champion economic development opportunities for South Georgia” said David Raynor, Georgia Chamber Senior Vice President of Public Affairs. “The Georgia Chamber is proud to endorse pro-business candidates like Dr. Bohlke and looks forward to working with him under the Gold Dome if elected.”

Scott Bohlke added, “I genuinely appreciate the support of my campaign by the Georgia Chamber of Commerce. The Chamber’s strong leadership for lower taxes, less regulation and more trade is clear, and I’m proud to have their support.”

The Georgia Primary Election will be held Tuesday, June 9, 2020. To find out more about Scott Bohlke and his campaign, please visit <https://scottbohlke.com/>. The Georgia Chamber is a nonpartisan organization that is dedicated to working with elected officials to ensure a future of economic growth for Georgia businesses, workers, and families. To locate your polling place or view your voter status, visit www.sos.ga.gov.

###